

Attachment No. 1 to the Regulations of the City Youth Activator Program

Project Evaluation Criteria

Who evaluates the projects?

The assessment of projects in terms of formal and substantive aspects will be carried out by a team composed of representatives of youth, youth organizations, the 'Teatrikon' Foundation, and the Social Participation Office of the City of Lublin.

Formal Evaluation

Formal evaluation of submitted proposals involves analyzing the following items (YES/NO):

1. the applicant is an informal youth group consisting of a minimum of 3 individuals aged 10 to 30 years.;
2. the application includes all the required elements.;
3. the application does not involve the implementation of unskilled activities

A condition for receiving a positive formal assessment is to answer 'yes' to all points.

Substantive evaluation

When conducting substantive evaluation, the following issues are taken into consideration:

1. diagnosis of the problem - from 0 to 6 points
2. action idea - from 0 to 6 points
3. group's motivation to participate in the project - from 0 to 6 points
